A. Read the paragraph below. Using the proofreading marks, edit the paragraph to make it correct.

It is said that the "greatest" love of all is love of self because we cannot love others unless we do love ourselves and love of self does not mean being selfish or greedy. It means caring for ourselves and it also means developing ourselves to the fullest in order to be able to love and care for others. As Jesus had said, we should love others as we love ourselves and caring for ourselves means developing good food habits and proper hygiene and it also means avoiding things or activities that can harm us like taking drugs and going with bad company. It also means developing good qualities that can build our character or personality.
